Three desperadoes, Bob Hightower, Pedro “Pete” Fuerte, and the Abilene Kid, rob the bank in Welcome, Arizona. The Kid is wounded during the getaway, and he loses not only his horse, but also all the loot. Now, the three of them are on the run, fleeing into the desert from the sheriff’s posse with no money, no water, and only two horses. But their troubles are just beginning. The sheriff has placed an armed guard at the only source of water for miles; their horses bolt during a sandstorm; and they stumble upon a dying woman who is about to give birth. They assist her as best they can, but now what will they do with the orphaned baby?
