

The Camp Chapel Film Seminar Series Presents:

The Camp Chapel UMC Christian Film Seminar Series presents for viewing and discussion secular movies that have Christian themes. The 2022-2023 season examines movies that are journeys with a purpose.

A remote tribe of hunter-gatherers in the Kalahari Desert who call themselves the San find a glass Coke bottle that has been tossed out the window of a passing plane, and, having never seen anything like it, they believe it is a gift from their gods. The San people find several uses for the bottle, but because there is only the one, it causes conflict among the tribe. Xi, one of the tribesmen, takes it, intending to make a pilgrimage to the end of the world, where the gods live, so that he can return it.

Saturday April 15, 2023
6:00 pm to 9:00 pm Via Zoom

Contact the church office for Zoom connection information.

Before and after the film enjoy a lively discussion about it, focusing on the theme of revelation. We will use selections from Scripture as our jumping-off point.

The Gods Must Be Crazy (1980), starring N!xau †Toma, Sandra Prinsloo, and Marius Weyers, directed by Jamie Uys has a running time of 109 minutes. It won two international awards and was nominated for three others.

Join us for a free movie classic. You must be 18 years or older.

