

THE CAMP CHAPEL FILM SEMINAR SERIES PRESENTS:

Saturday, July 19, 6 pm via Zoom

The world is about to be destroyed and there's nothing anybody can do to stop it. Newly single, Dodge Peterson finds his downstairs neighbor Penny crying on the fire escape, she having missed her last chance to fly home to England where she could be with her family for the last few days. After they get acquainted, Penny hands Dodge a stack of his mail that was delivered to her by mistake over the last three years, among which is a letter from his high school sweetheart Olivia, the "one that got away," declaring that she has realized that he is the love of her life. Dodge tells Penny he knows someone with a private plane who could fly her to England. He, Penny, and a dog named Sorry set off to get Penny on the plane and to reunite Dodge and Olivia before the end.

Seeking a Friend for the End of the World (2012), starring Steve Carell, Kiera Knightley, with Martin Sheen, directed by Lorene Scafaria has a running time of 101 minutes. It was nominated for three international awards.

You must be 18 years or older.
Zoom invitation will be sent via email

