*Call to Worship

Kellie Smith

O God, you have brought us again to this glad season when we celebrate the birth of Jesus.

Grant that his Spirit may be born anew in our hearts this day, and that we may joyfully welcome him to reign over us.

Open our ears that we may hear again the angelic chorus of old.

Open our lips that we too may sing with uplifted hearts.

Glory to God in the highest,

And on earth peace and goodwill toward all; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer

Let us pray: This is the message that we have heard from God and proclaim to you: that God is light and in God there is no darkness at all. If we walk in the light, as God is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the love of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all our sin.

(All meditate in silence.) May almighty God, who caused the light to shine out of darkness, cleanse us from all our sins, and restore us to the light of the knowledge of God's glory, in the name of Jesus Christ, our savior. Amen.

Old Testament Lesson

Isaiah 52:7-10

How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of those who bring good news, who proclaim peace, who bring good tidings, who proclaim salvation, who say to Zion, "Your God reigns." Listen! Your watchmen lift up their voices, together they shout for joy. When the Lord returns to Zion, they will see it with their own eyes. Burst into songs of joy together, you ruins of Jerusalem, for the Lord has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem. The Lord will lay bare his holy arm in the sight of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God.

*Gospel Lesson

John 1:1-14

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning. Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made. In him was life, and that life was the light of all mankind. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

There was a man sent from God whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify concerning that light, so that through him all might believe. He himself was not the light; he came only as a witness to the light.

The true light that gives light to everyone was coming into the world. He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognize him. He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him. Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God – children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God.

The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

*Prayer of Dedication

Almighty God, giver of every good and perfect gift, giver of the greatest gift, your Son, teach us to render to you all that we have and all that we are, that we may praise you, not with lips only, but with our whole lives, turning the duties, the sorrows, and the joys of all our days into a living sacrifice to you; through our savior, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you forever. Amen.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
