We are called by Jesus Christ to worship, make disciples, and serve.

Welcome

Centering our Hearts on God (by Dag Hammerskjold)

“You who is over us and one of us: Give me a pure heart that I may see you; a humble heart that I may hear you; a loving heart that I may serve you; and faithful heart that I may abide in you. Amen.”

Prelude

*Call to Worship

Frank Long

Spirit of the Living God, fall afresh on us.

Fill us with your Spirit.

We remember our Christian family around the world who worship with us today.

Inspire us to work for justice and dignity for this great family in all places.

Raise our vision above the barriers of color, culture, and creed that divide us.

Give us wisdom as we deal with one another.

Help us to recognize and to respect differences rather than to judge.

Jesus came not to be served, but to serve.

Following the example of Jesus, we now serve others.

Let our hands become your hands as we help others.

Let our hearts become your heart as we love others.

Let our lives glorify you in prayer, praise, proclamation, and practice!

*Opening Hymn

Prayer of Honesty and Hope

Let us pray: Lord, we do not always live in the fullness of our humanity. At times we fail to love you with our whole being or love others as ourselves. We have moments when we erect barriers between us and those who do not seem like us. (All reflect in silence.) Forgive us, Lord. Give us compassion and a generosity of heart and life for all whom you created and love.

The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. As we turn to him in trust and faith, we are forgiven!

Thanks be to God for this good news! Amen!

*Gospel Lesson

John 1:29-42

The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him and declared, “Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, ‘After me comes a man who ranks ahead of me because he was before me.’ I myself did not know him, but I came baptizing with water for this reason, that he might be revealed to Israel.” And John testified, “I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. I myself did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, ‘He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain is the one who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.’ And I myself have seen and have testified that this is the Chosen One.” The next day John again was standing with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by he exclaimed, “Look, here is the Lamb of God!” The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus. When Jesus turned and saw them following, he said to them, “What are you looking for?” They said to him, “Rabbi” (which translated means Teacher), “where are you staying?” He said to them, “Come and see.” They came and saw where he was staying, and they remained with him that day. It was about four o’clock in the afternoon. One of the two who heard John speak and followed him was Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother. He first found his brother Simon and said to him, “We have found the Messiah” (which is translated Anointed). He brought Simon to Jesus, who looked at him and said, “You are Simon son of John. You are to be called Cephas” (which is translated Peter).

Ever-Present and Calling God: You have claimed us as your own and entrusted to us the sacred task of taking your light into the world. We know that your grace goes before us and your strength works through us. Receive these gifts of gratitude. Use them—and us—to invite others to “come and see” for themselves your great love found in Jesus Christ our Lord. We pray this in his name. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
