“Come,” our hearts say. “Seek his face!”

Your face, do we seek, O Lord.

You hide us in your shelter in the days of trouble.

You lift us up.

Let us sing and make melody to the Lord.

Let us offer sacrifices with shouts of joy!

Prayer of Confession and Words of Comfort

Let us pray: Lord, you call us to follow. We could pick right up and go wherever you lead, but we want to know where you are going first. We admit that we are afraid, for you could take us to live among those who are not like us, ask us to sacrifice more than we want to give, or completely change our way of life. (Silent reflection.) Forgive us, Lord. Forgive the ways in which we hold back from full discipleship. Give us the desire and the courage to leave it all behind and walk with you each day.

Psalm 29 reminds us that God is our help and protection. Because of God, we have no fear! The good news is that, in the name of Jesus Christ, God receives our repentance and forgives us.

With Christ we can begin again! Thanks be to God!

Now when Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled: “Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali, on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the gentiles—the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned.” From that time Jesus began to proclaim, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.” As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea—for they were fishers. And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fishers of people.” Immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him. Jesus went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.

*O God, for the light your words bring to our understanding,
For the hope your words bring to our fear,
For the guidance your words bring to our path,
We give you thanks.*

Prayer of Dedication

Let us pray:* Use our gifts, Loving God, so others might not be scared or scarred by life. Let them be sheltered in the blanket of your grace and be full, warm, and safe. Grant that they may find a home with us and their true home in you. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Community Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

UMH 895

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.
